

ASSOCIATION FOR THE STUDY OF OBESITY
COLLABORATING CENTRE FOR OBESITY MANAGEMENT

2017 ASO COMs Meeting Monday March 27th - London

University of Liverpool in London
33 Finsbury Square, London, EC2A 1AG
Room: Seminar Room 4, 2nd Floor

Draft Programme

09.15 Registration and Coffee

09.50 Welcome and Introduction – Professor Pinki Sahota, ASO Chair

Session 1 Tier 3 weight-structured services: Which model is best

Chair: Carly Hughes, Fakenham Medical Practice

10.00 The Liverpool model
John Wilding, University of Liverpool

10.30 The RIO/Fakenham model
Matthew Capehorn, Rotherham Institute for Obesity

11.00 Developing Practice – the Healthy Weight Project – a family based approach
Claire Dempster, South London & Maudsley NHS Trust. GSTT and Lambeth Council

11.30 Discussion – Which care model is best? Minimum standards
All speakers

Session 2 An update on commissioning

Chair: Rachel Batterham, University College London

12.00 Update on commissioning guidance
Jamie Blackshaw, Public Health England

12.20 Group discussion

12.45 Lunch – 7th Floor

Session 3

Chair: John Wass, Oxford University

13.30 The role of a database for Tier 3: How and who should fund it/minimum standards?
Rob Andrews, University of Exeter Medical School

14.15 Patient groups
Rachel Batterham, University College London

14.35 Follow up post bariatric surgery – Interaction between Tier 3 and primary care
Helen Parretti, University of Birmingham

15.00 Where are the bariatric physicians going to come from?
John Wilding and Barbara McGowan

15.15 Coffee Break – 7th Floor

15.30 Future collaborative research discussion

16.15 Close of Meeting