

NORTH EAST OBESITY FORUM MEETING

Regional Group of the Association for the Study of Obesity

'Is fast-food the fast-track to obesity?'

@NE_ObesityForum #NEOF #FoodSwamps

Date: Wednesday 7th October 2015

Time: 4.00 - 6.00pm

Dr Thomas Burgoine

Career Development Fellow, University of Cambridge & CEDAR

"Is the proliferation of takeaway food outlets contributing to unhealthy diet and obesity?"

Peter Wright

Environmental Health and Trading Standards Manager, Gateshead
Metropolitan Council

"Wading through the fast food swamp"

Louis Goffe

Research staff and PhD Student, Institute of Health & Society, Newcastle
University

"Takeaway engagement: Ways to bait the vendor"

Free registration! There are a limited number of places available so please register at the following link to avoid disappointment: <http://forms.ncl.ac.uk/view.php?id=8686>

Location: Room H0.53, Centuria Building, Teesside University, Middlesbrough, TS1 3BA. For those driving, please use the car park behind the Victoria Building (number 17 on the map below) <http://www.tees.ac.uk/docs/docrepo/about/CampusMap.pdf>

You can also look at our page within the ASO website:
<http://www.aso.org.uk/association/north-east/>

Save the date!! The next NEOF meeting will take place in April 2016 at Newcastle University.
Look out for further information nearer the date!